General information about the course

Greetings, students! Welcome to this week's session of your English Class for BEGINNERS 1.

Please take the time to thoroughly review this guide as it holds crucial information for your progress in the course. Should you have any inquiries, don't hesitate to send an email to millescasd1@miumg.edu.gt with the subject line "BEGINNERS 1," or feel free to reach out to me via TELEGRAM.

Here are some key points to note:

- The course spans four weeks.
- Dedicate a minimum of four hours per week to online classes, which includes both live sessions and additional homework.
- Visit richmondlp.com to complete review exercises, listen to audios, and finalize the course with the last exam.
- When posing questions, kindly communicate in English.
- Utilize the ID CODE 8116 to generate your voucher.
- Successful completion of the course requires a minimum of sixty-one points.
- There is no provision for a recovery exam, so give your best effort consistently.

- Ensure all submitted documents are unique, as duplicated ones will be rejected.
- Adhere to instructions at all times.

Now, let's dive into Lesson #2.

Lesson's Objectives:

You will use the vocabulary and grammar of this unit to:

- look at different aspects of work and free time.
- listen to people talking about different jobs and free-time activities and talk about people who have two jobs and activities they do.
- listen to people in an event and practice asking questions about themselves.
- read an email about someone who was moved to a new city.

Activities:

- Online class. 0 to 4 points.
- Writing 0 to 3 points.

Pretend you are writing a letter to a friend:

Opening:

Begin with a friendly greeting to your friend. For example, "Dear [Friend's Name]," Express your happiness or excitement about writing to them.

Introduction: Start the letter by mentioning where you currently live. For example, "I currently live in [City/Town],"

Share information about who you live with. For instance, "I live with my [family/roommates/pets],"

Job and Work Description: Mention whether you have a job. If you do, briefly describe what you do. For example, "I am currently working as a [job title] at [company/organization]."

Provide a few details about your job responsibilities or what you enjoy about your work.

Free Time Activities: Move on to describing what you do in your free time. Share your hobbies, interests, or any activities you enjoy. For instance, "In my free time, I love [activity/hobby],"

Give a little more detail about your favorite pastimes and why you enjoy them.

Closing: Close the letter by expressing your hope to hear from your friend soon. For example, "I look forward to hearing about what's new with you!"

End the letter with a warm closing, such as "Best regards," "Sincerely," or any other closing phrase that suits your writing style.

Additional Tips:

Be mindful of grammar and spelling.

Add personal touches to make the letter more engaging.
